Disaster Assistance Available for Small Businesses

Sacramento, CA – Small, non-farm businesses in 22 Colorado counties (plus neighboring counties in Utah and Wyoming) may now apply for low-interest disaster loans from the U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA). These disaster loans offset economic losses because of reduced revenues to farmers and ranchers caused by the drought that occurred in the following 4 primary Colorado counties beginning January 1, 2006, announced Alfred E. Judd, Director of SBA's Disaster Field Operations Center - West.

Primary Colorado counties:

Jackson	Lincoln	Mesa	Moffat
---------	---------	------	--------

Neighboring Colorado counties:

Arapahoe	Cheyenne	Crowley	Delta	El Paso
Elbert	Garfield	Grand	Gunnison	Kiowa
Kit Carson	Larimer	Montrose	Pitkin	Pueblo
Rio Blanco	Routt	Washington

Neighboring Utah counties:

Daggett	Grand	San Juan	Uintah

Neighboring Wyoming counties:

Albany	Carbon	Sweetwater

Small businesses may qualify for Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) of up to $1.5 million to help meet financial obligations and operating expenses which could have been met had the disaster not occurred. "Eligibility for these working capital loans is based on the financial impact of the disaster only and not on any actual property damage. These loans have an interest rate of 4%, a maximum term of 30 years, and are restricted to small businesses without the financial ability to offset the adverse impact without hardship," Judd said.

By law, SBA makes EIDLs available when the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture designates an agricultural disaster. Secretary Mike Johanns declared this disaster at the request of Governor Bill Owens.

Businesses primarily engaged in farming or ranching are not eligible for SBA disaster assistance. Agricultural enterprises should contact the Farm Services Agency (FSA) about the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) assistance made available by the Secretary's declaration. However, in drought disasters nurseries are eligible for SBA disaster assistance.

For information and application forms, call toll-free (800) 659-2955, or visit SBA's website at www.sba.gov/disaster. Hearing impaired individuals may call (800) 877-8339.

The deadline to apply for these loans is May 1, 2007.
